

St. Benedict Parish

2310 Bedford Street, Johnstown, PA 15904

PARISH MISSION

Open To All In The Altoona-Johnstown Diocese

Featuring Inspirational Speaker

Dr. John Bergsma

March 31, April 1-2, 2019

7:00-8:30 PM Each Evening

A Full Professor of Theology at the Franciscan University of Steubenville, Dr. Bergsma served as a Protestant pastor for four years before entering the Catholic Church in 2001. Dr. Bergsma has a Ph.D. in Theology from the University of Notre Dame, specializing in the Old Testament and the Dead Sea Scrolls. Tickets for this event are not required. A love offering will be taken. All are welcome!

SUNDAY NIGHT

“How the Bible Made Me Catholic: A Protestant Pastor Converts”

In his first presentation, Dr. Bergsma recounts his journey into the Catholic Church as he discovered one passage of Scripture after another supporting Catholic teaching.

MONDAY NIGHT

“How the Bible Leads to the Eucharist: A Journey through Scripture”

The Bible is so big, most people get lost in it. In this presentation Dr. Bergsma will give an overview of Scripture and how it all climaxes with Jesus' self-gift in the Eucharist and at the Cross. You will never look at the Bible the same again!

TUESDAY NIGHT

“How a Catholic Understands the New Testament”

In this third and final presentation, Dr. Bergsma guides us through an overview of the major books of the New Testament, showing how it teaches the truth of the Catholic faith. Learn how to navigate the New Testament as a Catholic and recognize its central themes.

To learn more about Dr. John Bergsma visit: www.johnbergsma.com

For more information about this event please contact:

Deacon Michael Russo

Telephone: (814) 288-3036 or Email: michael.russo@atlanticbb.net