

CATHOLICS, COME HOME!

Have you drifted away from the Catholic Church over the years?

Have you been feeling that desire to reconnect at Christmas time or at Easter?

Does that same feeling hit you when you go to a Catholic funeral or wedding?

Do you still find yourself drawn to open the Church doors on Ash Wednesday or Palm Sunday?

If this describes you, trust that God is knocking on the ‘door of your heart.’ God wants to see your face in church, again.

Many people have found deep meaning in our Catholic tradition of marking foreheads with Blessed Ashes on Ash Wednesday to begin their Lenten Journey of a ‘Heart Renewed.’

The season of Lent can be a yearning time and a stepping stone to your return to the Catholic Church.

Regardless of how long you have been away from the church, if you find your heart still yearning to return at various seasons of the Church year – Trust that God is looking for your Catholic heart.

Trust that Gods' loving arms are still wide open to welcome your return. – Take the step.
