Diocese to Celebrate Faith Day

(HOLLIDAYSBURG, PA) – The Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown will once again sponsor Faith Day on June 24, 2018, at DelGrosso’s Amusement Park in Tipton. Bishop Mark Bartchak will celebrate Mass on the park stage at 3:00 p.m. with priests of the diocese concelebrating. The Liturgy will begin with a Family Faith Procession, which will include representatives from various parishes throughout the eight county diocese. Following Mass, a picnic supper will be served in Pavilion 2. Individuals and families can enjoy the park attractions throughout the day.

Faith Day is an annual celebration that brings together the Catholic faithful from all parts of the diocese. As he extends an invitation to Faith Day, Bishop Bartchak reminds local Catholics that although we come from different parishes and different geographic regions of the diocese, we are one family in the Catholic Church. Faith Day, he stresses, is an opportunity to celebrate that unity.

More information about Faith Day 2018 – including vouchers for all day fun passes – is available on the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown website at dioceseaj.org.
